List of documentation and information required from clients of Cape Coast Properties (Pty) Ltd in terms of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 1998 and the Financial Intelligence Centre Act 2001
--

Cape Coast Properties (Pty) Ltd, in terms of the above legislation, is required to be in possession of the following documentation/information in respect of all dealings with clients.

A. If the client is a natural person, the following are required:

1. Certified copy of green bar-coded Identify Document.
(In the case where the ID is lost / stolen – A certified copy of temporary ID, passport or driver's licence. All the documents must be accompanied by an affidavit stating that the ID has been lost / stolen.)
2. Any of the following documents reflecting your initials and surname, to enable us to verify your residential address:
 - A utility bill (e.g. rates & taxes). (Not older than 3months.)
 - A Telkom account. (Not older than 3 months.)
3. SARS document reflecting your income Tax number and, if registered for VAT, a SARS document reflects your VAT number.

B. If the client is a company, close corporation or trust:

1. Certified copies of company/close corporation/trust documentation.
2. In the case of companies and close corporations, proof of business address (only if different from registered address)on any of the following documents:
 - Utility bill in the name of the entity
 - Telkom account in the name of the entity
 - Letterhead

3. Income Tax and VAT number of the entity on a SARS document.
4. Certified Identity Documents of directors of companies / members of the close corporations/trustees of a trust.
5. Confirmation of each beneficial controller's contact particulars and residential address.
6. Proof of a person's authority to act (e.g. CM29, CK1&/2).

In the case of a company or close corporation, a resolution giving one person authority to act on behalf of the entity for the specific deal is acceptable.

The signatory hereby warrants that the information supplied, is correct and that the application completion, does not constitute an agreement to lease the premises.
